nineteen hundred and ninety nine

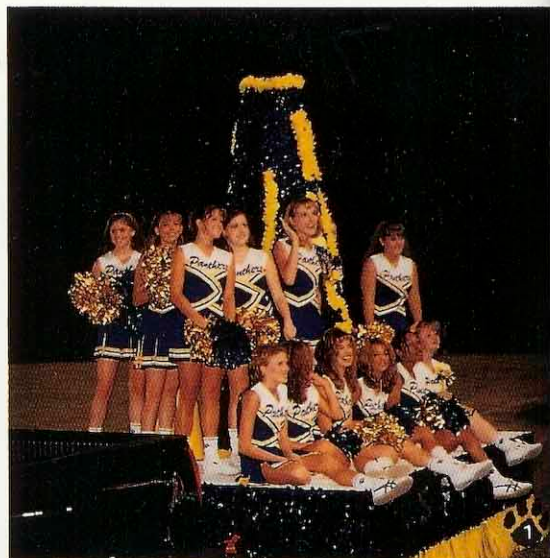

To the average person, a walk down the halls provided a glimpse of a typical Tennessee small-town high school. But to us, school went beyond classrooms, long hallways, and textbooks. The element that best signified school and made this "Magical Mystery Tour" special were the people.

As students of Riverside High School, we led varied lives during our stay. RHS became our home away from home, for within this building we built friendships, worked for the future, and learned to be ourselves.

There were special friends for special times along the way. Together we danced, partied, and traveled. Our weekends were filled with school activities and laps through town. These two-day holidays allowed us our time to play, to take a break, to expand our horizons.

Within the framework of our halls, we studied multiple subjects; not only basics, but electives to broaden our minds. Our teachers became coaches for academic excellence. Grinding through tremendous math problems and exasperating essays, we worked toward our places in the line of life.

1. RHS spirit at its best!
2. This trio is low in their cocoa.
3. Come on, Marty, you know you can't resist me.
4. "I don't even think so!"
5. It takes two to TANGO!

Kyle: Come on, ladies!

Kristie and Shonda always did go for a "man in uniform."

Party a little too hard last night, boys?

As the 2:40 bell sounded, we again discovered that what was left of our day was still ours. We spent this time at grueling practices, bettering ourselves for competitions, or just enjoying some rest and relaxation. We ran, threw, jumped, and studied harder with each day. Through these practices we learned from our mistakes and applied these lessons to the next competition. As our demand for money grew, we joined the workforce. This experience in the working world left us with cash in our hot little hands and an awareness of the real world.

All students at RHS planned our individual schedules for the 98-99 school year, yet through it all we shared a common denominator — we were Panthers, and as the century comes to an end, so do our years at RHS. As the last students walk these halls, we realize that Riverside may be coming to an end, but the memories and traditions we have made will be remembered always.

PANTHER PRIDE SHINING THROUGH

1. Cheerleaders leading the pep rally parade.
2. Stat girls: pausing for a picture at a tailgate party.
3. Seniors continue the tradition of burying their pennies.
4. Football players Wesley and Bobby enjoying the pep rally.
5. John, exactly what are you doing?
6. These seniors forgot to get dressed this morning!

The Year at RHS

1. Think we are afraid of the upperclassmen?
2. So, Patricia, what do you think of Riverside?
3. Brad: Hey, Whitnee, there's a camera!
4. Scott: Women — can't keep them off of me.

1. Girls just wanna have fun.
2. What did you say about Daniel?
3. Can you say cheese?
4. If you hold it long enough it will stick.

HEAVENLY FATHER, WE PAUSE; MINDFUL OF THE MANY BLESSINGS YOU HAVE BESTOWED UPON US. WE ASK THAT YOU BE WITH US AT THIS RODEO AND WE PRAY THAT YOU WILL GUIDE US IN THE ARENA OF LIFE.

WE DON'T ASK FOR SPECIAL FAVORS. WE DON'T ASK TO DRAW AROUND A CHUTE-FIGHTING HORSE, OR NEVER BREAK A BARRIER. NOR DO WE ASK FOR ALL DAYLIGHT RUNS, OR NOT TO DRAW A STEER THAT LAYS.

HELP US, LORD, TO LIVE OUR LIVES IN SUCH A MANNER THAT WHEN WE MAKE THAT FINAL RIDE TO THAT COUNTRY UP THERE, WHERE THE GRASS GROWS LUSH AND GREEN, STIRRUP-HIGH, AND WATER RUNS COOL, CLEAR, AND DEEP,

THAT YOU AS OUR LAST AND FINAL JUDGE WILL TELL US THAT OUR ENTRY FEE IS PAID.

Football State Playoffs

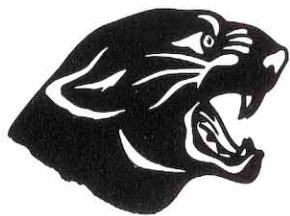

The speed of sophomore Anthony Webster helped RHS to the playoffs this year, the first time since 1981.

Anthony's honors include first team offense All-Region 6-3A, first team offense All-West Tennessee (the only sophomore), and honorable mention All-State. He gained a record-setting 1,761 yards on 162 carries and scored 19 TDs this season.

Also earning honors was junior Brian Brasher, who was on the All-Region 6-3A first team offense and All-West Tennessee second team offense.

Congratulations, Panthers!

In the years that Tabitha Brasher has played basketball for RHS, she has had many accomplishments and has also broken a few records along the way. In her junior year she was selected 1998 District 14-AA Player of the Year, averaging 19 points a game. She also broke the school record for the most three-pointers in one game, sinking 7 against Camden last year.

Not only is she a member of the 1000-point Club, but she has also broken another school record, for the most free throws in a season. By the end of her senior season, Tabitha was Riverside's all-time leading scorer in girls' 5-on-5 basketball.

At the end of the 1999 regular season, Tabitha was 14-AA Player of the Year once again. Coach Gardner was Coach of the Year, and the Lady Panthers were ranked No. 1 in 14-AA regular season play. Congratulations, Lady Panther team!

I knew this time would come some day, but it got here way too fast. It seems like only yesterday that I was taking you to kindergarten and promising you that we would take you to see Disney on Ice so you would not cry when I left you at school. Now it will soon be time for you to go to college, and you will have to make promises to me to keep me from crying when I come back home and leave you there.

You have been a wonderful daughter. You have made us so proud of you in so many ways and so many times. You have accomplished a lot in your 17 years and I know you will accomplish much more in the years to come.

You have a wonderful personality and a beautiful smile, and it seems to be so easy for you to make everyone happy. Don't ever lose your sense of humor!

Always remember to believe in yourself and you can do anything you set your mind to do. I hope and pray that you always strive for and accomplish every goal you set for yourself in the future.

You have made us very proud to call you daughter and sister.

Wesley Wyatt

Wesley,

The day you were born, we were all so excited. You can never imagine all the Grandparents that were invited. You were so cute and lots of fun. But your older sister Brandy gave us a scare and was rushed to the hospital while you were there. It wasn't long before you could run, but you learned quickly that the "little switch" wasn't too much fun when you did run. You would pick on your younger sister Lisa to hear her cry. But you always expected the "little switch" on that try. You could always charm a star from the sky and could get away with mischief with that smile and a twinkle in those big brown eyes. In those little boy days we became best friends and played all the games grandparents can. Before we could imagine, you had started to school. We missed you so much. But we knew that we could count on you to fulfill all of our dreams of being a good student and a star of the team. Although you are Grandchild No. 3, you will always be special to me. You have made us so proud of the fine young man you have become. Every day you keep growing nearer and dearer to our hearts. We wish for you Good Health and Happiness in the years to come.

Love,

Granny June and Granddaddy L.V.

Misty Stevens

Misty,

As we look at you sometimes it's hard to believe "our little girl" is grown. As a child you have always succeeded in everything you set your mind to. We know whatever path you choose you will be successful. The Lord has given you many gifts and has made you into the strong, independent young woman you are. As you continue in this world remember "... nothing shall be impossible to you." Matthew 17:20

We will always love you,
Mom & Dad

Wesley Wyatt

Wesley,

It's hard to believe the time has come for you to graduate from high school. It seems like only yesterday that you were born. We watched you grow from an energetic, curly-headed little boy to a mischievous yet kind-hearted young man. You have truly blessed our lives. We love you and are very proud of you. May God bless you and lead you in whatever you do.

Love,

Momma, Daddy, Lisa, & Brandy

Alan Brasher

Alan,

We are all so very proud of you, and have been since the day you were born.

You suffered one of the greatest losses to a child when you lost your Dad, but you got back up and went on with your life. Always keep him in your heart. Never forget him. He would be proud to see his boys on the football field (Brothers in Battle). Good luck with your life. Remember, we will always be there for you.

Love,

Mom, Dennis, Mike, Brian & Little Dennis

BRANDY JOHNSON

You were always Daddy's little girl, and he was so proud of you. If he were here with us now, you would be his pretty young lady, but God took him from us way too soon. I wish he could be here to share this special moment with us and to see all the accomplishments you have achieved.

As you reach this milestone in your life, I want you to know that I have never been more proud of you. Every day I thank God for you, and I know your Daddy is smiling down on you now and forever. Remember everything he ever taught you, and you will go far in life, and remember that I love you with all my heart. Congratulations, Brandy.

Amy,

It's hard to believe that you are a senior. It seems like only yesterday we brought you home from the hospital. In the seventeen years you've been with us, we've watched you grow into a wonderful young lady.

Follow your hopes and dreams and always put God first in your life. He will lead the way.

Love,
Mama & Daddy

Tina Smith

We'd like to collect you and shield and protect you
And save you from hurts if we could;
But we must let you grow tall, to learn and to know all
That God has in mind for your good.
We never could own you, for God only loaned you
To widen our world and our hearts.
So, we wish you His freedom, knowing where He is leading,
There is nothing can tear us apart — Gaither
We love you and wish God's best for you always.

Who'd have thought it would be such a short time from play-school to perfume, diapers to dates, kindergarten to college. Now you'll be finding your own way, your own life. We are so proud of the young woman you have become. You were a special gift that has made our lives richer and fuller than could have ever been possible without you. We love you so much and will always be here for you.

Love you lots,

Chrystal,

I've watched you grow and learn;
I've watched you laugh and cry.
Now you will move on to a greater turn,
You will pursue as far as your mind will fly.
You were so inquisitive when you were young,
I tried to teach you all that I knew.
Now that you've learned so much,
Words cannot express
how very proud I am of you.

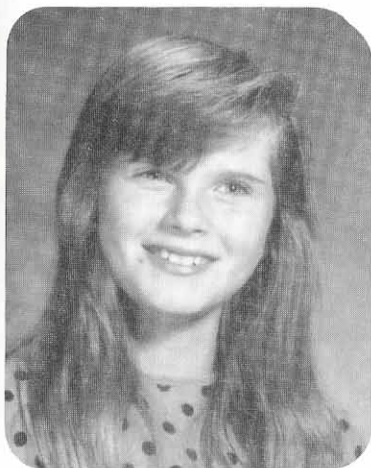

*I Love You Always,
Mom*

Chrystal,

Well, it's about that time. Time to see you walk down that long aisle of glory. I have been following you for years, most of the time slacking off; but you always managed to point out my flaws and still stay a great inspiration for your little sissy.

*Love Always,
— Maggie*

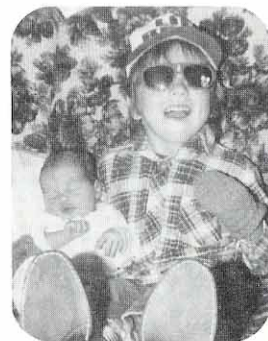

Jeremy Montgomery

It seemed like only yesterday that we were following you to your first T-Ball game. Daddy Pete would have been so proud of you through your last few years of ball, especially when you pitched that no-hitter. Every time you walk through the door, you bring me so much happiness. Your visits mean so much to me. You are such an outstanding person. Daddy Pete and I love you very much and are so proud to call you our GRANDSON. You're the greatest ... May God always take care of you wherever you go.

*I love you,
Nannie*

*Thank You, Jeremy, For All the Wonderful Memories
You Have Given Us*

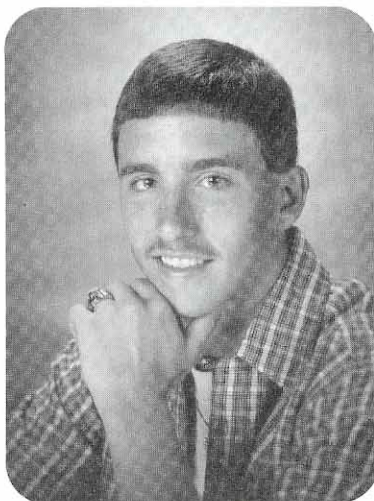

Our memories of you always take us back through the years ... Memories of an infant, so sweet and small and trusting; Memories of a toddler, giggling with the joy of childhood; Memories of a youngster, smiling and playing with friends; Memories of your teen years, full of change and doubt and growth. Our memories of you mark your journey from a baby to a child, and magically to a young adult. We cannot believe that the time has passed so quickly. And now, we see a wonderful, gentle person — Our best friend, the baby we held, the person with whom we shared secret jokes, special talks, laughter and victories, tears and defeats, and gentle guidance into a world of hope. We feared that we may have spoiled you many years ago, but you spoiled us instead ... with boundless joy and soaring pride and a love that grew as you did. Though time and schedules may keep us apart, our bond exceeds distance and miles. Life is a blessing with you by our side, with you always on our heart. Always put God first in your life and remember: When you were born, we rejoiced and you cried. Live your life in such a way that when you are gone, we cry and you rejoice!

*We Love You Very Much,
Mama and Daddy*

Philippians 4:13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Jeremy,
You are the best BIG BROTHER a girl could have.

Love ya,
Jennifer

Jeremy,
You have brought so much happiness to my life. Congratulations and best wishes in all that you do. Always remember to look to God for guidance.

Love you always,
Hayley

Jeremy.

We were so proud of you the day you were born and just as proud of you today. You have made our lives so happy. I remember buying you a little T-shirt with "Class of '99" on it. That seemed so far away, and yet time has passed so fast. You may be all grown up now but you will always be our little nephew. We will always be here for you. We wish you the best out of life. We wish Daddy Pete could be here for that big Graduation Day. He was so proud of you and Jennifer. Y'all were his pride and joy. May God always be by your side.

*We love you,
Sonny, Mickey, and Aunt Gail*

Jeremy.

It seems like only yesterday we were holding you for the first time — OUR FIRST GRANDSON. We felt such pride and wondrous joy. Now, as you graduate, we still feel that same pride and joy. Because of the distance that separates us, we can no longer be there for everything you do, but we do enjoy hearing about it. We are as close as the phone and as personal as a card or letter. We loved watching you grow up; those memories are the ones we cherish. We love the moments we have together now, however short or long they may be. Words can't express how much we love you and how proud we are of the fine, outstanding young man you have become. Remember that your guardian angel is with you always.

*We love you,
Mops & Pop*

Jeremy.

We all remember the day you were born; we'll never forget your favorites, like cake and corn. Our first nephew will forever be dear; you are special, so never fear. We have watched you grow and on occasion even mow. We enjoyed your baseball and coon hunting tales; we felt helpless as you struggled with asthma that made you cling to the rails. We're so proud of your accomplishments, no matter how small: continue to strive and go for it all!

We love you,
Your Aunts, Missy, Tabby, and Jowayna

Kristy Tucker

Since God loaned you to us you have been a constant joy to our whole family. Because you are a Christian, a thinker, ambitious, and show love to the people you meet, I know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do. We wish you the best in life.

*We love you tremendously,
Mom and Dad*

There hath no temptation taken you but such also is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

Amanda Yarbro

Amanda,

We know that you can achieve what you want in life; we believe in you. We are all proud of you and love you very, very much.

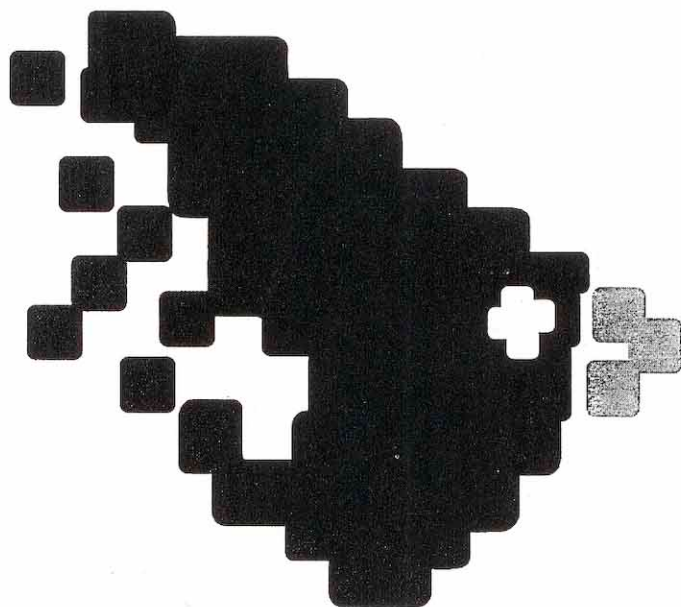

Love,

Daddy, Mama, David, and Tim

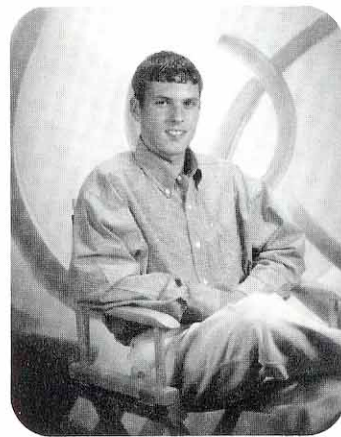

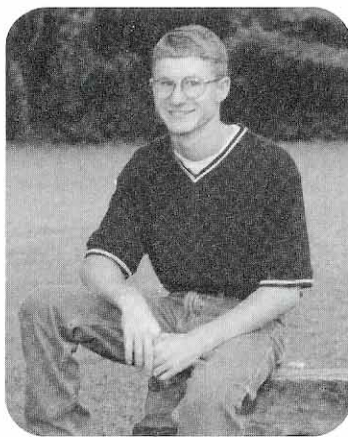

Life isn't about keeping score. It's not about how many people call you and it's not about who you've dated, are dating, or haven't dated at all. It isn't about who you've kissed, what sport you play, or which guy or girl likes you. It's not about your shoes or your hair or the color of your skin or where you live or go to school. In fact, it's not about grades, money, clothes, or if colleges accept you or not. Life isn't about if you have lots of friends, or if you are alone, and it's not about how accepted or unaccepted you are; life just isn't about that.

But life is about who you love, and who you hurt. It's about how you feel about yourself. It's about trust, happiness, and compassion. It's about sticking up for your friends and replacing hate with inner love. Life is about avoiding jealousy, overcoming ignorance and building confidence; it's about what you say and what you mean. It's about seeing people for who they are and not what they have. Most of all, it is about choosing to use your life to touch someone else's in a way that could never have been achieved otherwise. These choices are what life's about.

Brandy Nicole Tate

Brandy,

Life has thrown you some sharp curves, but you have always come back at it with a smile and determination to get through them. You are my little girl and I'm so proud of you.

*Love,
Daddy*

Brandy, you will always be my big sister and I LOVE YOU — Tyler

Brandy,

You are someone I enjoy being with so much. Whether we're getting together with the whole family or just with each other ... whether we're talking seriously or shopping foolishly or eating happily ... you have so much to give and share, and I'm very grateful for every moment you share with me. I hope you know I'm not saying this just because you're my daughter. You're a kind, caring woman that I would be proud to know and call my friend ... even if I didn't already love you so much.

Love, Moma

Tooty Ivey

When you were young you were sorta pouty. In your later years you were somewhat rowdy.

Today you're smart, intelligent, and wise. Boy, did that come as some surprise!

Some days were sunny and some held a cloud. But, today I'll have to say I sure am proud.

To have a daughter and a friend too could come only from someone special like you.

*Love,
Mama*

My Dear Daughter Rachel

I want so much for you to know how much I love you.

I am critical of you sometimes, but it is only because I have experienced so much more of life, and I can often see that the path you are taking today may not take you to where you want to be tomorrow.

I know, too, that you are still young and you have to experience life for yourself. If I can ...

I just want to spare you some of the pain I had to go through on my own path in life ...

When the words don't come with all I want to say, I can still say this: "I love you tremendously." I would do anything for you. And I promise I will try to be more patient and understanding of you, and I will pray that you will do the same for me.

And do me a favor sometimes ... tell me you love me, okay? Having you grow up on me so quickly is hard on me.

Never forget where you came from, who you are ... for only with that knowledge may you discover all the glorious things you will become.

*I love you,
Mom*

Meah

Ann

Hearington

Meah,

On Friday, February 13, 1981, at 8:00 A.M., God sent this precious little angel weighing 8 pounds to me. Guess who! It was you. Ever since that day you have been a blessing and inspiration to me. Like your name, MEAH, (Nehemiah 3:1), you have been my tower of strength.

I know it will soon be time for you to start college and a life of your own, but I feel you have the wisdom and strength, with God's hand guiding you, to make the right choices for your life.

To me you are everything a mother could ask for in a daughter — loving, kind, considerate, pretty, and, above all, a dedicated Christian young lady. Always stay as close to God as you are now and your pathway of life will be a lot smoother.

Remember that I will always be here for you.

*I love you,
Mom*

To our Meah,

Thank you for being such a wonderful granddaughter. You will never know how much we appreciate all of the things you do for us. We pray God will bless you and you will have a successful future.

*We love you,
Gran & Faf*

Little Toni

Our little girl's blue eyes turned green
Always loving and seldom mean.
Toni — you are so smart and kind
Daddy and I know you are one of a kind
And will be a great find.
Aim high and shoot straight,
And your future will be very bright.
If ever in doubt always follow the light.
Toni — you are our angel sent from above
Wrapped with all our love.

Autumn,

From the day you were born we have guided you in the path we hoped you would take. Now the time has come for you to make your own decisions and to choose your own path. Explore life, discover friends, but always remember where you began.

Love always,
Mom, Daddy, and Jason

Larry,

You have greeted me each morning with your easy smile and bright eyes. Through the good times and bad, laughter and tears, we have traveled many roads together. Your hard work and determination will make all your dreams come true. You have the knowledge, strength, and personality to succeed at anything. Thank you for letting me be your mom. I am very, very proud of you.

Love, Mama

John Maxwell

John, you're a great young man and a wonderful son.
We're so proud of you for the things you have done.
Set your goals high and you will see,
That you can be anything you want to be.

Love, Mom and Dad

Dear John,

It's so hard for us to believe that you are graduating this year. Time has really flown by. To say that we are proud of you is an understatement. You have grown into a terrific young man and we know that whatever you do you will succeed, because that's the kind of person you are. We love you, John, and wish you nothing but happiness always.

Congratulations!

Uncle Phil, Aunt Susan,
Sunni, and Hunter

John,

We can't believe it's time for you to graduate. You have made us so proud. We got to hold your hand for a while but you will be in our hearts forever. Always remember, whatever comes to any of us is sent or allowed by God. We're glad He sent us you.

We love you.

Dexter, Ginger, And Brooke

Dear John,

We have watched our little boy with the big smile grow into a fine young man. We are so proud of you. We wish for you the very best in the future in whatever you choose, and always remember we love you very much.

Grandmother and Granddaddy

John.

I can't believe you're graduating soon! I remember when we were young and we fought often. I never thought that I would be saying this, but now that I am away at school, I actually miss arguing with you sometimes! Who would have thought I am really proud to say that you are my brother. Keep your chin up and your positive attitude, and you can face any obstacle that the future may throw your way. I love you!!!

Love,
Holly

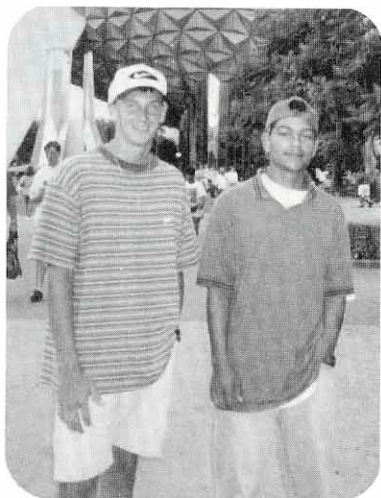

John.

It seems like only yesterday that you were this little blond-headed boy that just smiled all the time. Now that you have grown up, you don't have the blond hair, but you still have the smile. Always keep that smile and remember that we all love you. We are very proud of what you have become and we will always be there for you. Good luck in all that you do. I know I don't tell you this much, but I do love you, little brother.

Love,
Mick

Remember you have the ability to make your life everything you want it to be. This is your life — choose well!
Take the time to choose what you want to do & do it well.
Take control of your life — make your own decisions — you are the best and deserve the best!
Take the time to make your life healthy, worthwhile, happy and very exciting.

Dear Brandy,

It seems like only yesterday you were born; now you're 18 and graduating from high school. You have always been such a joy to our family and we are so proud of you.

We pray you will continue to let the Lord guide you in all the decisions you make in your life.

*We love you,
MamMaw & PapPaw*

Ruben Yarbro

Ruben,

It seems like only yesterday I came home and saw a stranger sitting in the living room. Since then we have become so much closer.

Congratulations, good luck, and remember that I will always be there for you.

*Love,
Nelia*

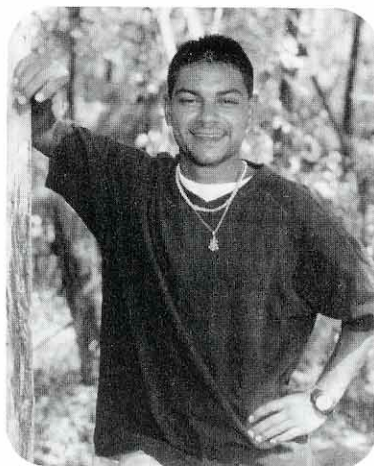

Ruben,

Congratulations! Well, I'm going to miss picking up after you and making you food. You'd better find a good maid at Knoxville! I'll really miss all those "Big Brother" rules you have for me! But I'll make it okay. Maybe! Well, just remember I'm there for you!

*Love,

Tabitha,
The time has come for us to let you soar, to spread your wings and to open the door. But don't forget those at home waiting for your visits and praying for your safety, wishing all your dreams and ambitions will come true. We have had you for eighteen years, which is really such a short time. You have grown into an intelligent, beautiful, young lady. Keep your heart and goals centered on the Lord and you will accomplish what is best for you. You have worked very hard, so don't give up, even though it seems like you will never get there.

P.S. We are very proud of your accomplishments. Always, always remember we are here for you and we love you very much.

Dear Drew,

You did it! Finally you have reached the goal you've waited so long for.

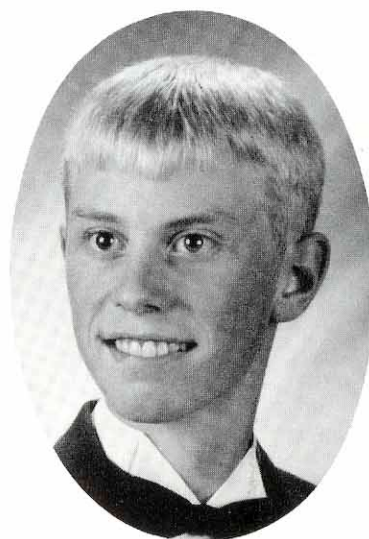

You are learning that nothing worthwhile ever comes without hard work.

It is time to put this stage of your life behind you and prepare for the future as you do your best and make the most of today.

"Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and your plans will succeed." — Proverbs 16:3

"For I know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." — Jeremiah 29:11

My darling little girl, you're all grown up now. You're going off to a world of strangers. You're about to start your own life away from home into college. Some will forget where they have come from, but not you. You will always remember your family and friends. When the world lets you down, I've got the poem for you to remember ...

Be Strong

Be strong! We are not here to play, to dream, to drift;
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift;
Shun not to struggle — face it, 'tis God's gift.

Be strong! Say not, "The days are evil." Who's to blame?
And fold the hands and acquiesce on shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name.

Be strong! It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong;
How hard the battle goes, the day how long;
Faint not — fight on! Tomorrow comes the song.

So when you feel like you're not strong enough to go on, read this poem and be strong. Just remember, you can come to me for anything.

Best wishes and I hope you succeed in life.

*I love you,
Mom*

Desi,

Out of the teens of this world that make today's crowd, having a Des in our family sure has made us feel proud!

Today, he stands for everything that's good and right in our sight. While a little one, bumps and bruises he wore, but then an air flight. Our thoughts have never been the same since then; that look and stare, an "I love y'all too" grin.

The Come-back Kid is what we pray he stays, so he'll be close to Mom and Dad for the rest of their days.

Desi, continue to put your trust in God.

Dear Daughter,

In the past eighteen years, you've grown from a precious baby into a wonderful young lady any parent would be proud of. We still worry at times because the world has changed a lot since you were born. Many of the choices you've had, and will have, to make are more difficult to make than those we faced when we were your age. We didn't always agree with your decisions, but we hope you know we respect your courage and independence in making them. You're doing all you can to be the person you want to be, and we admire that. Remember, no matter what life brings, you will always be our daughter and we will always love you.

Michael,

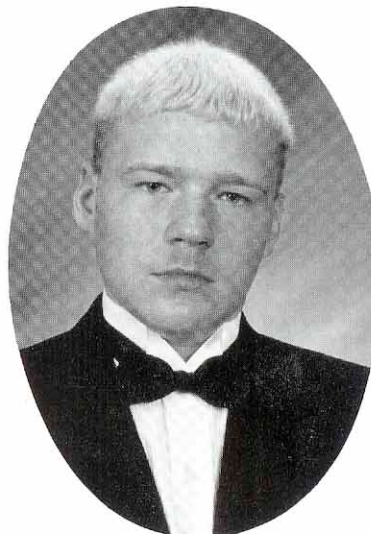

From the time of your birth until your graduation day, we knew our lives would be changed forever.

We are proud that God chose to give us such a special son to love.

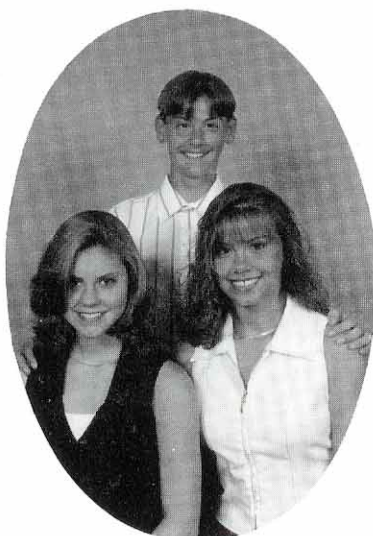

The past cannot be changed; the future is still in your power.

The real purpose of our existence is not to make a living, but to make a life — a worthy, well-rounded life — a useful life.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Megan Barnickel

Megan,

Some people say we look alike, but they can't believe we are sisters because we don't act alike — we act more like best friends. It hasn't always been that way; we have had our rounds, we have even had our ups and downs. When something goes wrong you are always there for me, and I will always try to be there for you. I can talk to you about anything. I hope you remember that I'll always be there for you too. Good luck in college and everything you do. But always remember: We aren't just sisters — we are best friends.

Love always,
Mecca

Megan,

It's not always easy being a little brother, but you've always had time for me and been there when I needed you. I'll never forget it! Thanks!

Love, Matt

Nickolas Linton

Nickolas.

It has been eighteen years of ups and downs, since day one. You definitely have experienced a lot of life. I like to think you have learned from your life experiences and will go on to better and bigger things.

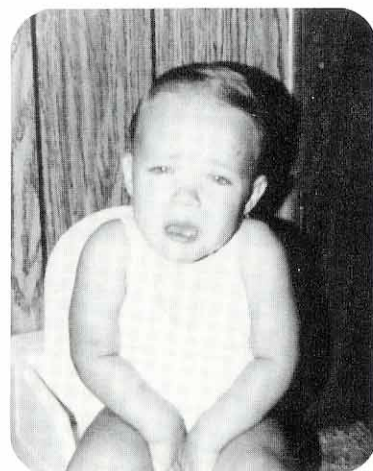

You are full of potential which you have not even considered. Your life before you is a blank book. You fill the pages by the choices you make. May God always watch over you.

Love you always,

Mama, Daddy, and Samantha Jane

Samantha Rowland

Samantha,

I am so happy for you. This is a big step in your life — out of high school and into whatever you want in life. You know that I have always been behind you in everything you do, and whatever you choose to do in the future, I'll support you a hundred per cent. I'll give you my help when you need it, but I'll always give you my love.

I want to thank you for letting me be a part of your life for the past couple of years. Without you I don't think I would have smiled as often or enjoyed life in general nearly as much as I have. No matter what we do in the future, I'll always be able to look back over the past couple of years and remember all the good times we have had. Life with you so far has been great, and I only want what's best for you. If you continue to want me in your life, then I'll gladly be here with a smile on my face. Congratulations,

Love Always,
— Scott

Through the years of your life I've seen you grow from a baby so small, to a young woman aglow.

As you live each day I want you to know, dear daughter of mine, I do love you so.

Heather,

The time is near — only a few months away — then the door will be open to life's highway. We wish you the best and may all your dreams come true, 'cause nothing is too good for someone as special as you.

Congratulations, sis.

*We love you,
Daddy and Phyl*

Heather,

Congratulations on a job well done. We are proud of you. Rely on God's guidance and strength to help you through life.

*We love you,
Nanny and Papa*

HEATHER WEST

Heather,
We love you,
Grandma and Jason

Heather,

The years have gone by so fast, and you have grown into a beautiful young lady. I know it doesn't seem that way to you, but you will see what I mean in a few years.

I would give you the moon and stars if I could, and I'm sure if that's what you want you will reach them. Life is what you make of it, and you have many options. Very soon you will be making your own decisions, but whatever you do, make sure it's what you want, not what anybody else wants. Remember that whatever you decide, I'll always be behind you, and I'll be there for you no matter what.

I am proud to have you as my daughter, and I wish you all the happiness in the world.

*I love you so very much,
Mama*

Shonda Dunavant

On Sunday, the 7th day of December, 1980, God blessed me with a miraculous gift named Shonda.

Over the years I have watched you grow into a beautiful, intelligent, talented young lady; I am very proud to be your dad. You have filled my life with happiness as well as much love.

Seems like just yesterday you were saying, "Daddy, raise the training wheels on my bike." Nowadays I hear, "Daddy, my car needs to go to the shop."

But no matter if it be yesterday, today, or tomorrow, you will always be my little girl.

Shonda, no one knows how hard it's been on you through the years. I am very proud of you. Congratulations, Miss RHS — you're a big girl now.

Love, Daddy and Donna

Timothy Ryan Maness

Ryan,

As I try to pen the words I feel in my heart, I search not only for words, but for the right words to let you know how special you are to us. I guess this should be easier the second time around, but what I've found is there is nothing easy about watching your children grow up. We knew back in January 1981 this day would come, but we didn't realize just how fast the time would fly. Ryan, you are a big Senior and think you are grown; but son, there are things you will never outgrow: 1.) our love as your parents, 2.) Our parents' love as your grandparents, 3.) your brothers' love, and most of all, 4.) God's love for you.

Remember, son, always walk with God and you'll never walk alone.

Patty Kay Roberts

On August 14, 1980, I received a third gift from God, another daughter. She was very small and weighed only 25 ounces. There were some people that told me that she would not live and flourish, but you see, this gift came from God and He is in control. This little 25-ounce baby had many struggles in her early life, but now the great eagle lifted her on His wings and she began to talk, crawl, and grow. The struggles didn't end, but God was there for her every time. She has grown into a fine young lady, and I am so very proud of her. She has taught me patience, compassion, love faith, trust, and what the statement, "When the going gets tough, you keep on going," really means. Her steps are not easy, because they sometimes come with pain, but you see, she is not a quitter. She shares a smile and a laugh that is equal to none. I thank God for this third gift in my life, and may He continue to bless and keep you.

I love you, Patty Kay Roberts
Your Daddy

Patty.

It is really hard to believe that you are 18. I remember very well what happened 18 years ago on August 14, 1980. Yes, you were very small, but God had plans for you. I am so very proud of all of your accomplishments. I know other people would have given up, but you didn't. Please, always keep God first in your life, Patty, because you're first in His sight.

Love you always,
Mama

Patty Kay,

To my little sister, even though I was only 6 when you were born, I still remember the cry and scream you could let out. It's really hard to believe that you are 18 years old and about to graduate from high school. In your 18 years of life you have overcome a lot of mountains. Patty K, you're almost at the top. I know that I give you a hard time, because I want you to keep going. I want you to know, Little Sis, you've come a long way, so hold your head high, go to the top of that mountain, keep the Lord in your heart, and all your dreams and wishes will come true. We love you very much; never change yourself for anyone.

Love you, Little Sis,
Amanda and Andy

Certain relationships are inseparable.
A parent will always be a child's parent.
A child will always be a parent's child.
And you will always be my sister.
Our memories are unforgettable.
From sharing toys to sharing clothes,
From dressing dolls to our first prom,
You gave me hope when there was doubt,
And confidence when life was not fair,
But most of all, your love beyond compare.

Love you little Sis,
Dee

Cami Fisher

Cami,

It almost seems impossible for you (our baby) to be leaving home to further your education. My, how time goes by. It seems that it was only yesterday that we brought our precious baby home from the hospital.

Even through difficult times, you have managed to prove what strength and perseverance you possess. It has been a great joy for us to see you grow into a special young lady.

As you move on, please know that you have our total support. Our prayer is that God will keep you in the center of His Will.

*We Love You,

FROM ME TO YOU

I have watched you grow into a very remarkable young man. As a child, you were my bundle of joy and made me very proud. With each accomplishment you looked for a greater one — strong-willed and very determined. As you grow older — this still holds true. Always hold your head up high and don't lose sight of your goals. As you have already proven many times — you can do anything that you set your mind to. You always find a path where there is no road, and you always find good where everyone else sees only bad. You are headed into a bright future. Hold fast — stand with God and be true to yourself and the rest will follow. Though seldom said — you are truly exceptional — one-of-a-kind — and I will be proud of you always. YOU are my greatest accomplishment.

LOVE ALWAYS,
Mom

Congratulations and good luck in everything you do. My heart and my love will always be yours. I will be behind you every step you take.

Love always,
Shannon

Terra,

I thought I would be prepared for this moment, but I'm not. Time has gone by so fast. I thought I was here to give you strength and courage, but I got my strength and courage to face each day from you and April. I have truly been blessed. I will stand by you in whatever choices you make in life. Go for it all.

Love,
Mom

Congratulations and I love you!

You may be my baby sister, but you are not a baby anymore. You have grown so fast, I just can't believe you are graduating from high school. Set your goals high and you will make yourself and me very proud.

*I Love You,
April*

Terra.

Although it's hard for me to believe, I know that you are all grown up now. No matter how many years pass or whatever the future may bring, in my heart and mind you will always be my baby.

BEVERLY KAYE

GOODMAN

Congratulations, Bev,

I cannot believe that my baby sister is graduating. I am so happy and proud of you. I know the road has been hard, but you have overcome it successfully. Just always keep your eyes on God and things will go more smoothly. Thanks for the many memories we have together as sisters. I know we will have more memories together throughout life, especially if you and the girls come to Martin. I wish you the best in all you do. Just remember to be happy and do your best, and God will bless and protect you.

P.S. Read and memorize I Corinthians 10:13; I promise it will help you through the hard times in life.

*Love,
Michelle*

Bev,

It's hard to believe that you are graduating high school. It seems like yesterday that we were little girls, playing dress up, house, and all that fun stuff. We have lots of good and memorable times, the three of us. I will never forget these times, no matter how far away I may be. No matter what you do in life, always do your best; this is what leads to success. Best of wishes from both of us. We love you.

Liz and Chad Harden

P.S. When you marry that rich, old man, remember me in Florida!

Jamie Sue Bush

Jamie,

When you were a little girl, you were always a mature and smart child. You grew up way too fast, taking on responsibility and never complaining. Throughout those years you have done well through school and we wish you the best in college, because you will succeed in whatever you wish to do. We are proud and love you!

We are so proud of you. You have grown from a little blonde girl with glasses to a pretty, young "who knows what color" hair "lady with contacts." You have taken a lot of teasing in your life, but you have become a stronger person because of it.

Always believe in yourself and make the best choices. Strive to be the best you can be and you will succeed in everything you do.

Remember to always put God first in your life, and ask His guidance in everything. Remember "You can do all things through Christ who strengthens you." Phil. 4:13

*We Love You,
Mom and Dad*

FRIENDS

The secret of friendship is being a good listener.

A friend is someone you can always count on to keep a promise.

Real friends are there when you need them.

Good times are even better when shared with a friend.

A true friend is someone you can trust with all your secrets.

Friends always laugh at your jokes,
even when they're not funny.

Gems may be precious,
but friendship is priceless!!!

BRANDY TATE

There's a miracle called friendship
That dwells within the heart,
You don't know how it happens,
Or how it gets its start
But the happiness it brings you
Always gives a special lift
And you realize that friendship
Is God's most precious gift.

*Love,
Brooke*

A Friend

A friend is someone special —
The dearest kind of friend,
Who's always there beside you.
Through whatever life may send.
The one who shares your ups and downs
Your joys both big and small.
And who doesn't look for words of praise,
Yet deserves them most of all.
With a heart full of thanks,
For the sweetest things you do,
And a heart full of kindness,
Especially for you!

Congratulations

CORY COTTRELL

Cory,

I love you, Bubba.
Thanks for being my big brother.

Love
Sis, Kelli (Baby)

Cory, my little brother,

It seems not too long ago, I was dressing you up in my clothes and makeup. Now you're all grown up, not my little brother anymore.

I love you with all my heart and I hope you always remember that. You're almost out of high school and going out into this big world.

Just remember to keep your eyes open and your head up. It's a big, cruel world and I'll always be there for you in any and every thing you do; I know you'll do it well.

*I love you,
Sis, Deena*

Cory,

Well, you made it!! Good luck in everything. Thanks for chauffeuring me around. You're the best!!!

*Congratulations,
Love you lots.
Brooke*

Cory,

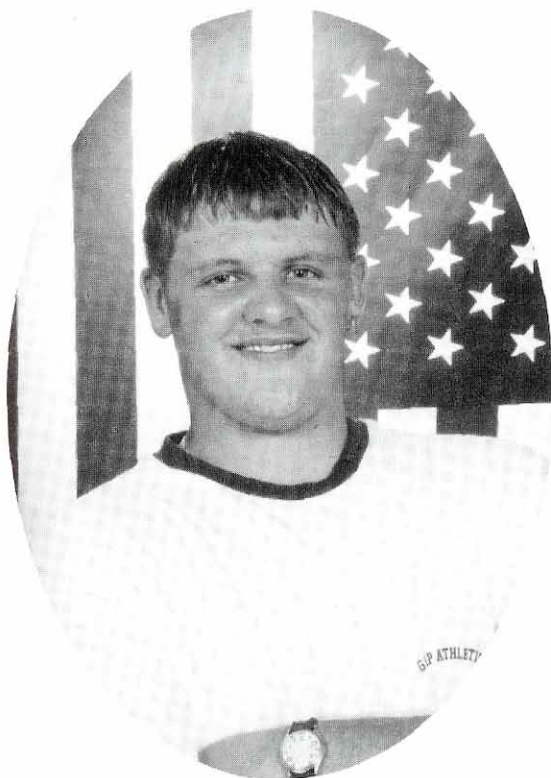

In every life there comes a time
To spread your wings and start your climb
To show the world what you can do
Giving to others what has been given to you.

Now take that step from child to man
Extend your love with a helping hand
Be led by God — it's the only way
Lean on the Lord each and every day.

You've passed the test of growing pains
Overcome your burdens, remained the same
You've made your parents so proud of you
You've done the best that you could do.

You'll always have our love to share
If you ever need us we'll be there
Now follow your dreams, remembering first
Is our Lord Jesus Christ Forever.

Mom, Dad, & Kelli

Chuntell Inman

Chuntell,

Congratulations — you finally made it. We are so proud of you. Follow your heart and dreams — we will be behind you in whatever you pursue. We wish you only the best. Remember that we will always be here for you. We love you, "little girl."

Love,
Mom and Dad

Chuntell,

I can't tell you enough how proud I am of you. I always hoped for you to do the opposite of myself, and that you have done. I like to think you have turned out so well by watching the things that happened to me when I was bad. So, see, good can come out of the middle child. Ha Ha. May you continue to grow and fulfill all your dreams.

We Love You Always,
April, Brooke, and Mikey

Congratulations on your graduation day! I always knew you would make it. You have made me extremely proud of you. You are a very intelligent young woman; I know you will achieve more than anyone expected you to. Good Luck!

We Love You,
Delana and Samantha

Chuntell,

You are the greatest sister alive. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't be who I am today. Good luck in college.

Love,
J.D.

We're All That

Through the shattered souls of yesterday,
I can surely now tread.
Now that dreaded things are over,
My happiness can now take toll.
It has been a long, hard journey,
For only a few has it been simple.
The ones who have worked and have striven
for success,
My friends, we have made it.
Making my point has never been easy,
So think of my details as what they are.
Losing and gaining friends was hard,
Letting go of all the tired friendships,
Little did we know we only made them stronger.
Happiness has found us, lost us,
and found us again.
Love has changed our lives and the lives of those we love.

As we soon embark upon a journey from adolescence to adulthood, we realize that we're lost.
Strength has discovered a weak spot
and so has our pride.
Letting go of childish games and stupid acts is hard,
Funny pranks and actions will always follow us.
Becoming "RESPONSIBLE" must now take their place.
Going to college is for some; working is for others.
Whatever you do, my friends, make it wise,
Make it known, make it safe,
And make sure you will be happy.
Life has yet to take another turn,
But the "Curves Ahead" sign is in plain view.
This year starts your future — this year starts your life.
Start out fighting, start out praying, and most of all,
Start it out with a BANG!!!
Now, Class of '99, follow your heart,
And follow your dreams.

Good Luck, Class of '99!!!
